

Weather

Summer has finally arrived and temperatures should climb again today — officially the second week of Fall. The thermometer will reach the mid-80's in the valley with the usual night and morning fog along the coast to keep things somewhat cool. Winds will be light except in gusty Dublin.

Tentative pact reached Friday

Chabot teachers vote on salary settlement

Balloting was completed late yesterday as teachers at Chabot College campuses in Livermore and Hayward cast their votes which will decide if the three-month-old cost of living salary dispute is settled.

A tentative settlement between negotiators for the South County Community College District Board of Trustees and the Certificated Employees' Council (CEC) was reached late Friday.

The agreement calls for a $1,450 across the board increase for all full-time regular faculty members, amounting to a 7.6 per cent average raise. Part-time teachers would receive a $1.50 per hour boost, from $12.50 to $14 per hour.

Ballots were hand-delivered to the approximately 150 teachers belonging to either the American Federation of Teachers (AFT) or California Teachers' Association (CTA). The other 80 faculty members at both campuses are non-union and cannot vote.

Voting began at about 9 a.m. yesterday and ballots were to be returned by 5 p.m. Each union conducts balloting for its own membership, and the results would be tabulated and combined for a final tally.

Ray Edwards, president of the faculty senate at Chabot Hayward, said the tabulation would be completed last night and a determination would be made at 9 a.m. today on its outcome.

Edwards felt fully confident the membership would overwhelmingly ratify the new contract proposal. "I feel it will pretty nearly unanimously in approval, and then we can get back to the job of concentrating on teaching," Edwards said.

Most teachers he talked to agreed with him that the measure would be easily passed, he added.

Teachers began salary negotiations in June, and received a 2.5 per cent cost of living increase offer on June 20, which was immediately turned down.

Negotiators for the faculties at both campuses charged the board with refusing to discuss alternatives. On August 20, teachers approved two resolutions; one, castigating the board for "trying to ram proposals down our throats without a chance to study them," and the second giving unanimous support to the CEC and any bargaining stance it chose to accept.

The board then offered a six per cent across the board increase, but teachers stuck to their demands for parity to the national cost of living annual figure, which stands at 12 per cent.

Teachers complained bitterly about the 11.1 per cent cost of living increases for administrative personnel, and a ten per cent raise for classified personnel.

Edwards said he hadn't seen teachers that upset during salary negotiations in his 12 years at Chabot, and wouldn't rule out a strike "if the situation called for one."

Negotiations continued, and board representatives modified their proposals but actually offered little increase over previous proposals. The board compared other community college cost of living increases recently granted, which averaged 7.5 per cent.

Chabot teachers said their base salary was lower than the other districts mentioned by the board, and even though was rated one of the best community colleges in the state, was seventh in base salary. Teachers rejected a 6.5 per cent average increase on Sept. 11, but voted not to strike "at the present time" at the same meeting.

The board increased its offer at the Friday session by 1.1 per cent, and added an optical insurance plan in addition to existing medical and dental plans.

The package also includes a retirement plan which allows teachers with a longer tenure to retire earlier.

Board looks for needs in valley

LIVERMORE — What does the valley need to make it a better place for you to live, the Alameda County Training and Employment Board (ACTEB) wants to know.

The board, in conjunction with the Associated Community Action Program (ACAP), will fund programs to meet the needs of the unemployed, underemployed and economically disadvantaged.

They want to know the kinds of programs citizens think are most needed and who should benefit most from the programs to be offered.

Community meetings will be held throughout Alameda County to hear citizen input with a valley gathering scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Granada High School multi-purpose room, 400 Wall St., Livermore.

Child care will be provided and more information is available at 881-6081.

The community meetings are sponsored by the ACAP administering board and the ACTEB manpower advisory council.

Bus problem haunts district

PLEASANTON— Pleasanton Elementary School District board members have not heard the end of the school busing cutbacks predicament.

Petitions circulated by Susan Smith in the Del Prado area and Dede Ranahan in the Vintage Hills sector have gathered 415 names to date for reinstatement of ALL bus stops.

The petitions will be presented at the regular school board meeting scheduled Wednesday night at 7:30 in the District Educational Center board room, 123 Main St.

Mrs. Smith says parents believe the district can reinstate all bus stops in the manner done in Silvergate and Vintage Hills (for high school students).

Originally, Del Prado parents asked for one homeward bound stop for students returning from Alisal School. This was okayed but parents felt the inbound stop to Alisal should also be placed back on bus schedules.

Petitioners have now asked for all bus stops to and from Alisal plus restoring of the minimum walking distance to three-quarters of a mile.

The elimination of bus stops was called for originally by trustees and staff who felt it necessary to affect budget cutbacks in certain categories.

Another large audience is expected at Wednesday night's meeting.

Also on the agenda Wednesday are summer school and Outdoor Education reports, consideration and bid award on a Walnut Grove re-roofing project, authority to establish school trustee account (Valley View School), and reports from Superintendent Bruce Newlin, personnel and the board.

State wants Ridgeland 'say,' PARC asserts

The State of California indeed is interested in participating in the multi-jurisdictional study of ridgeland, according to Margaret Tracy, coordinator of the Preserve Area Ridgeland Committee (PARC).

Tracy's assertion, contained in a press release issued in response to an article appearing Sunday in another valley publication, maintains that "State interest in this area is already evidenced by the pilot project of the proposed trail and hostel corridor which would link Tilden Regional Park, Chabot Regional Park, Las Trampas Regional Park and Mt. Diablo State park."

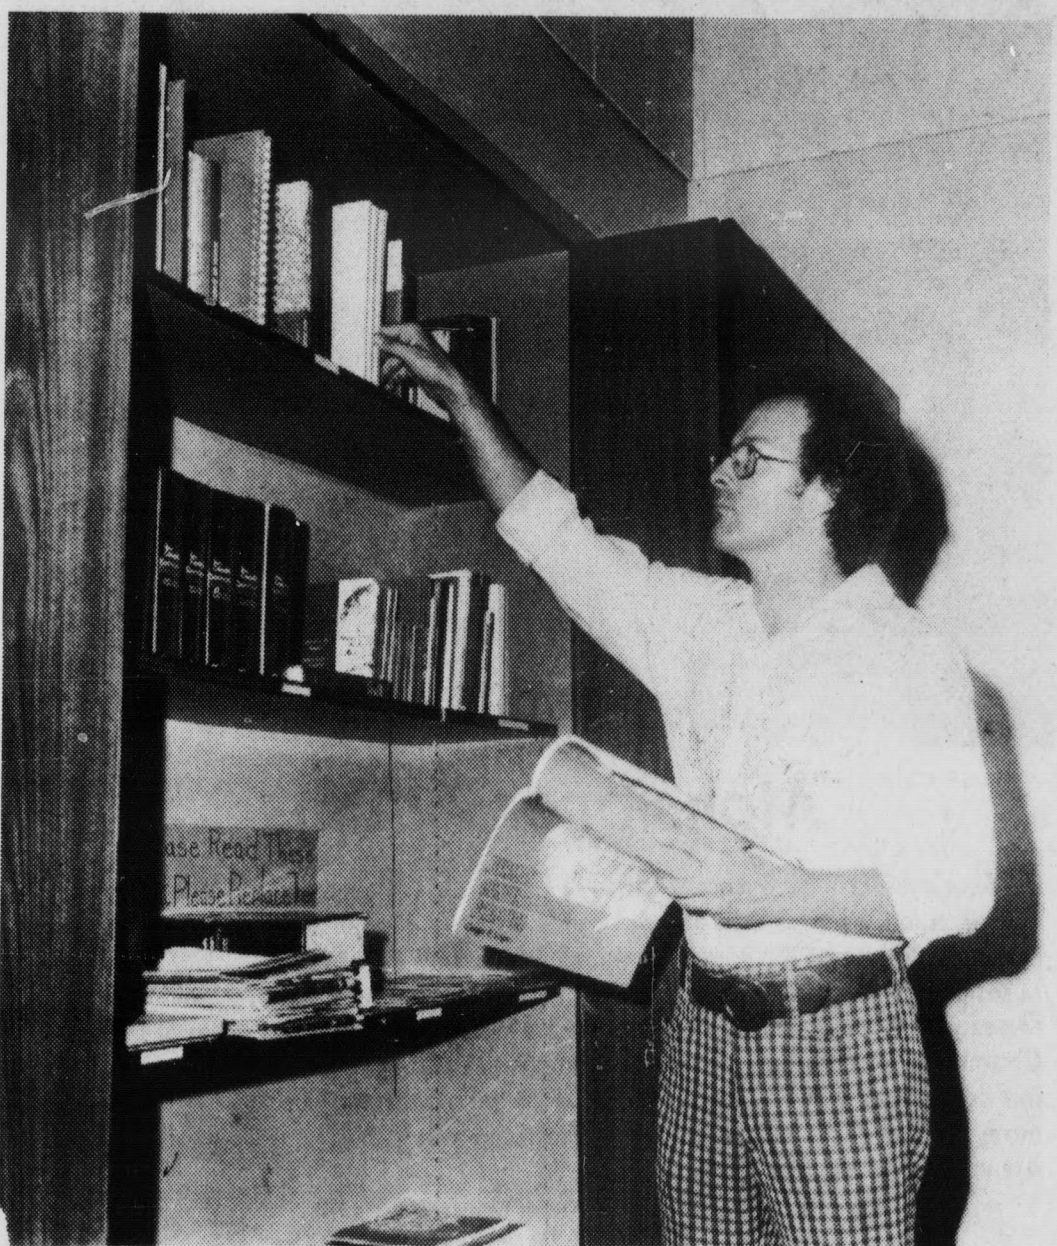

The newspaper article referred to a meeting in Hayward last week between James Tryner, Chief of the Resource Management and Protection Division of the state Department of Parks and Recreation and the PARC steering committee.

The story said Tryner saw little encouragement for state participation in the multi-jurisdictional study and that the present administration of Gov. Edmund Brown, Jr., has determined transportation to be the major problem.

"The meeting with Tryner was an information discussion which established many points of agreement between PARC and the state," Tracy explains in the release.

"For example, both PARC and the state place high priority on central city access to open space. For PARC, one of the major reasons for preserving the ridgeland is their closeness to the central cities," she adds.

Tracy also noted that an East Bay corridor is indicated on the state's recreation trails and hostels plan.

John Seymour checks German language books.

Dublin's John Seymour

Years in service launched language teacher's career

(This is the second in a continuing series of articles on "The Classroom Teacher." Articles will deal with elementary and high school teachers in Pleasanton, Dublin and San Ramon.)

DUBLIN—John Seymour, Dublin High School and the German language came together after a circuitous "apprenticeship" that started in El Monte and led to Chico, Ft. Meade in Maryland and Berlin, Germany with a "rest stop" in Glendora.

An articulate and exacting teacher of languages, Seymour has been at Dublin five years after a one-year stint at Centerville Junior High in Fremont.

Though one would consider being tapped by Uncle Sam in the middle of his graduate year as a dismal turn of luck, Seymour turned it to his advantage and made his almost four years of service a foundationhead from which has sprung a budding career as a language instructor.

Seymour is not one to take past or current situations with a grain of salt and say "oh, well."

He is up front with his thoughts and opinions, possibly as the result of training in such a precise discipline as the German language and his military duty (for 37 months) of intelligence gathering in Berlin.

As we speak, the air conditioning system in the small supply room hums smoothly, in contrast to the lobby and adjacent rooms where students study or practice cheers in stuffy, un-air conditioned surroundings.

Seymour remarks about the situation.

"The district is plagued with air conditioning problems," he contends "It's gone here and it's gone in other sections of the school— and it's been this way in prior years."

Seymour is also outspoken on the subject of district-wide priorities, claiming that funding is apparently low on the scale for foreign language lab equipment.

He says that an accreditation team from WASC gave high priority for such equipment in a report issued two years ago.

"As a result of this lack of support, I've dipped into my own pocket for most books you see on the shelf." Seymour gestures to several rows of books and then points to a pair of tables below the shelves that he says he built.

One realizes that Seymour is quite concerned that students at Dublin, at least those in his language classes, are afforded the best possible training aids.

Quite often, the student entering Seymour's class is already versed in the basics of the German language.

This is due to the efforts of Cindy Jackson at Wells Intermediate School in the Murray School District. Students can take instruction in German as early as the seventh grade.

"They take two years to cover what we do (at Dublin High) in one. But, because of that early training, they come to me as German II students," adds Seymour.

Thus, a student intent on mastering the German language and culture can take six years, starting in the seventh grade, and be considered a German V student by the end of his senior year.

Seymour's route to Dublin began in El Monte, where he grew up, and led to Cal State Chico where he received a BA in English.

Preserving a 100-year-old valley mansion

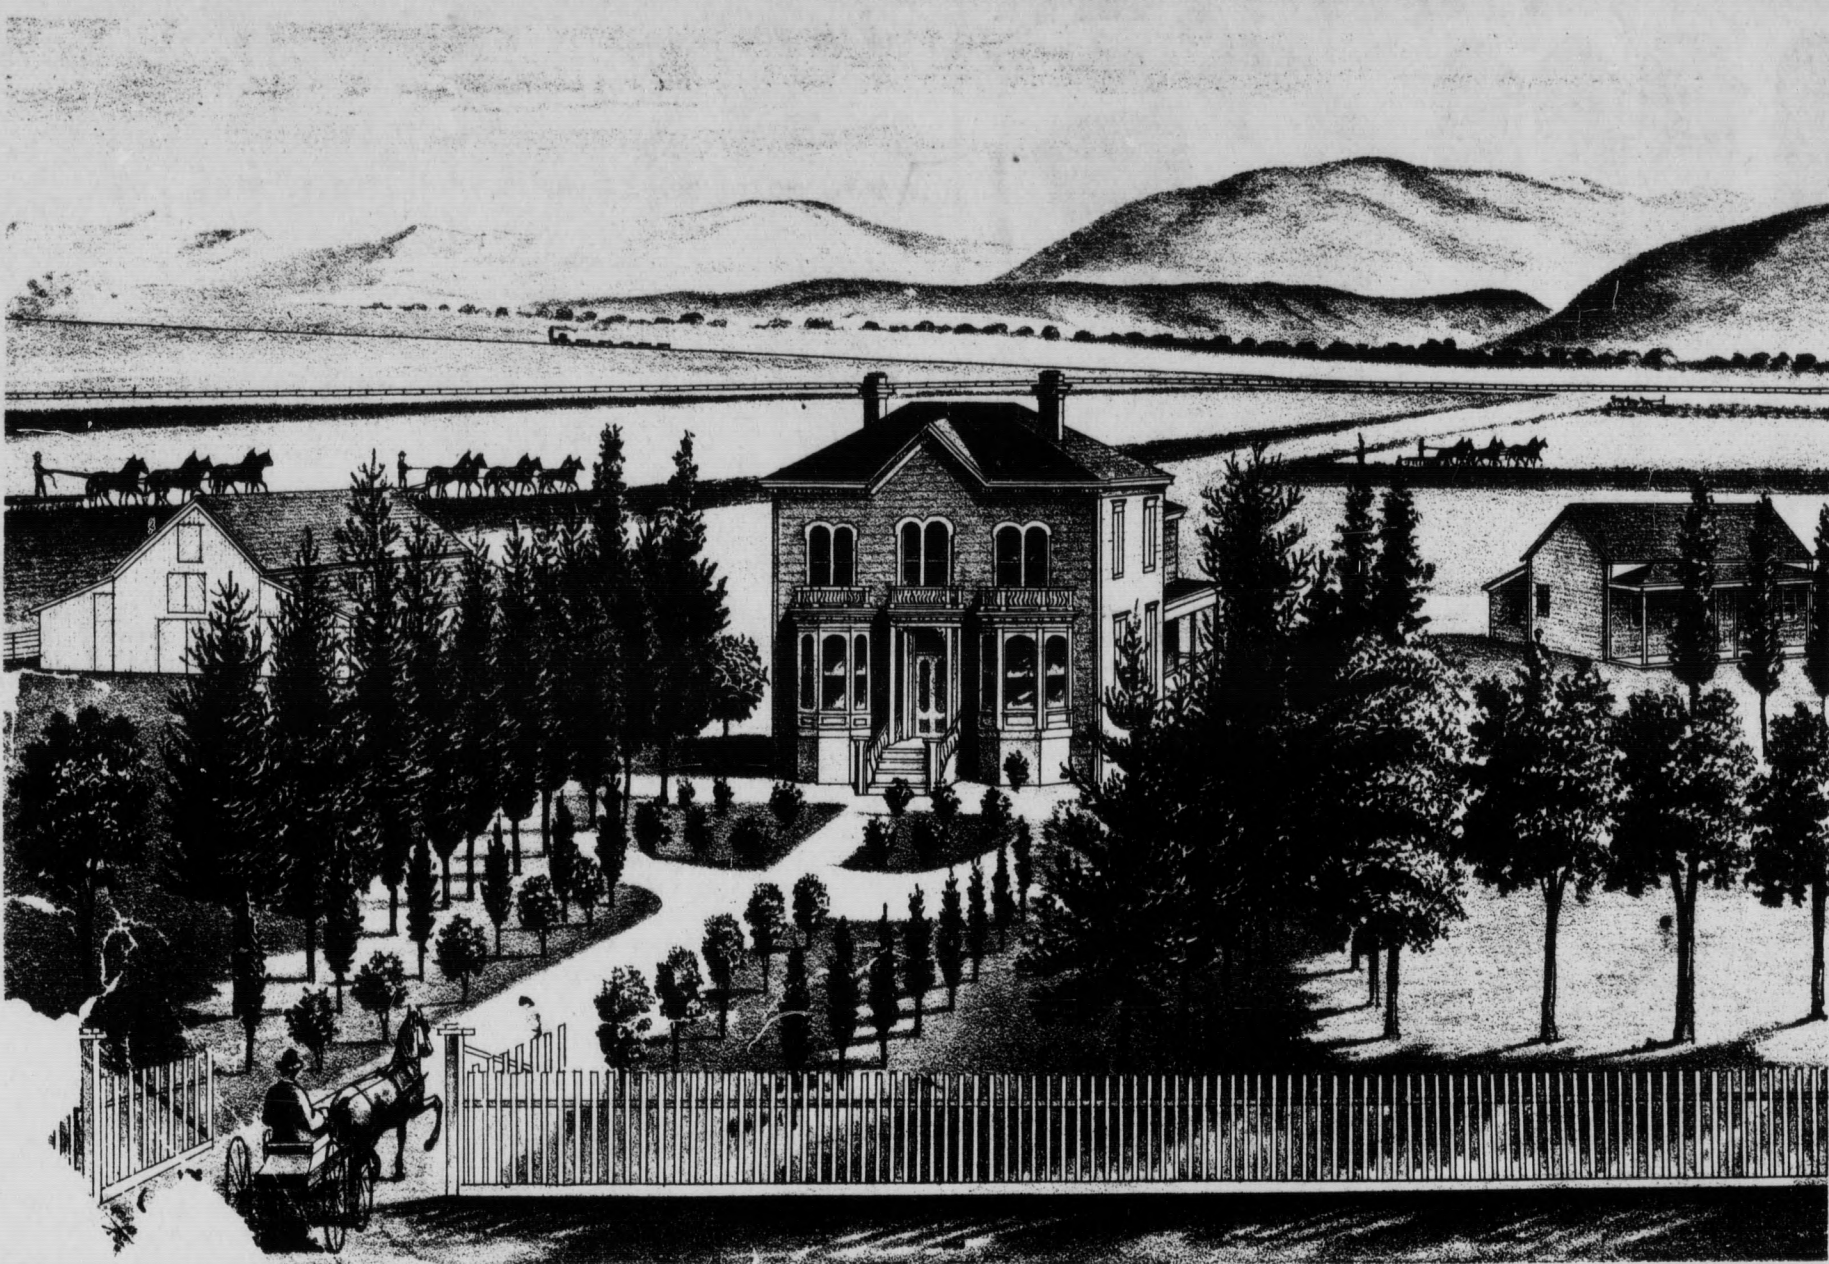

At its meeting in Hayward this Thursday afternoon, the Alameda County Parks Advisory Commission will "consider recommending the English-Mohr house as a point of historical interest." While the commission's action "will not necessarily guarantee preservation of the structure," there is the feeling that "we would at least be calling the attention of the public and the county government to this 100-year-old dwelling."

The records show that J.M. English was the first owner of the handsome two-story residence which stands today at the end of Mohr Avenue, on Pleasanton's northeast side. H.P. Mohr bought the land and buildings of J.M. English in 1885. Mohr thereafter became one of the valley's foremost farmers, a noted breeder of Clydesdale draft horses, and a grower of grain and sugar beets.

The rich soil of the Mohr properties were later revealed to be the overburden for an even richer vein of sand and gravel ... from a depth of less than three feet below the surface, to 100 feet and more of that saleable material.

Kaiser Sand and Gravel, which today owns virtually all of the original Mohr-English lands, has said that a scheduled 1976 demolition date for the dwelling "has been postponed indefinitely." Two of Mohr's five daughters — Cecile Cope and Edna Mohr — continue to make their home there.

This drawing is taken from an 1878 Atlas of Alameda County. The front of the house has gained a pillared front porch since that era, but in other respects the drawing is an accurate indication of the land and its buildings.

Hospital remodeling tops agenda

Alameda County Bureau
The $200,000 remodeling project for Fairmont Hospital will come before county supervisors this morning, along with a maximum $20,000 architect's fee.

Bids to bring the hospital's buildings B, C, E and H to fire safety standards were opened by the county's purchasing department last week and range from $154,646 (T. L. Bake and Son Danville) to $192,475 bid by Red Feather Construction of Hayward.

County public works staff originally projected costs at $200,000.

The staff has recommended accepting an architect's agreement with William M. Gillis. The fee is not to exceed $20,000, according to the department.

Supervisors also will hear a recommendation for a $46,550 revenue contract with the Alameda County Neighborhood Arts Program; the revised 1975-76 budget for the Livermore Area Recreation and Park District; and a petition by the Evangelical Free Church of Pleasanton for an amendment to the zoning ordinance.

Supervisors will convene in their chambers of the county administration building, fifth floor, 1221 Oak St., Oakland, at 9 a.m.

ate year at Cal State Hayward he was drafted. But before that took effect, Seymour wisely enlisted and specified language training, listing his choices as Russian (first), German and then Chinese.

He ultimately received orders to Ft. Meade, Md. for six months of German language instruction—6½ hours a day five days a week. Two weeks into the class all were told they would be assigned to Berlin, Germany. And that is exactly what happened, all 30 in the class going to West Berlin.

"I didn't realize how fortuitous this was going to be," Seymour enthuses. So, eight months into the service, I arrived in Berlin one cold November morning. And I stayed there 37 months, leaving in 1969."

Seymour adds, "When I look back at the circumstances, I realize how fortunate we were."

"It was sort of the best of both worlds. My wife and I lived with a German family and, at the time, there was a favorable rate of exchange with the dollar equivalent to four marks."

"I really fell in love with the city and language. It has opened doors for me and continues to," adds Seymour.

Upon returning to civilian life and obtaining his teaching credential he went to work part-time at Centerville Junior High.

He was an English instructor at Dublin High until January of 1973, replacing Mrs. Vollmert as the German language instructor at that point.

He has three class periods a day—German I, German II and German III and IV—plus classes in Spanish and English.

Seymour has almost 75 students in the German classes and is very positive on interest in the subject growing.

The German Club, primarily a social organization, has an active nucleus of 20 to 25 students and is planning activities for the school year.

"In the past we have put on German dinners, which the kids prepared and served, taken a trip to the internationally famous Schroeder's Restaurant in San Francisco and to the Goethe Center."

This year a number of students will attend a German language camp Oct. 10-12 in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Total immersion in the language is a goal of the camp.

The curly-haired and bespectacled instructor also notes the impact of a couple former students on the program. One, Kevin Jones, applied to Youth for Understanding and is now studying in Hamburg, Germany.

Another, exchange student Wolfgang Winter, was a highly popular and positive influence on Dublin students during his stay last year.

Seymour also notes the influence, though passing, of touring German soccer teams on student-players in the Dublin area.

In addition to his duties as a language teacher, Seymour is also a senior class advisor.

"My push," sums up Seymour, "as far as language is concerned is to enhance one's feelings about one's own capabilities... to acquire a device that will open doors for one and add a dimension to one's life."

Youths menace police during mob gathering

LIVERMORE — Two juveniles were arrested early Sunday evening after they became hostile and physical toward police trying to disperse a crowd of 20 to 30 youths on North I near Third St.

Police were dispatched to the area on a report of two carloads of juveniles harassing a lone male youth. Upon arriving, two men were arguing with other while a group of juveniles stood around them.

Officer Dennis Scott asked the crowd to calm down, but one man continued to shout obscenities at police. Scott attempted to grab his arm as he walked away, and the man, identified as Alexander Hernandez of Tracy, allegedly slapped Scott across the face.

The report says the crowd subdued Hernandez but became more hostile toward police until more units arrived.

Lt. Gary Souza arrested Richard Souza, also of Tracy, for reportedly confronting him while the arrest of Hernandez was in progress. Hernandez continued to resist and kicked Scott in the groin before being placed in the patrol car, the report says.

Both men were booked for investigation of resisting arrest, assaulting a police officer, and disturbing the peace.

Get your working number

OAKLAND — Students, housewives, and other people planning to get holiday jobs should apply soon for a Social Security number if they don't have one, according to Social Security officials here.

"Applications from people who don't recall having had a Social Security number before generally are screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure a second number isn't issued to the same person," a spokesman said.

"Screening takes time," he said, "so you should apply for your number at least several weeks before you need it for a job covered by Social Security."

People can get information about applying for a number by calling or writing any Social Security office. More than nine out of 10 jobs are covered by Social Security.

A worker builds retirement, disability, survivors, and Medicare protection by work and earnings credited to his Social Security number. "Your number is yours alone and remains the same for life," the spokesman said. "When you get a job covered by Social Security, be sure your employer copies your name and number correctly from your Social Security card to his records."

People applying for a Social Security number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship, according to the spokesman.

"If you've lost your card," he said, "you can get a duplicate by contacting any Social Security office. You can get a duplicate faster if you can show the people there the stub that came with your original card."

Caring for children of the community

Detective Tim Splan introduces kindergartners at the Cronin School to Patch the Pony and his warning against talking to strangers.

Some day a stranger may offer you a ride
Or candy or money to get you inside.
But you must run away just as fast as you can
And tell your Policeman.
There's a brown and white pony
And his name is Patch the Pony. He says,
'Nay, nay,
From strangers stay, stay away, stay away.'

This song about Patch the Pony by Margaret H. Liles held kindergartners in Pat Ransdell's class at Cronin School in rapt attention.

Detective Tim Splan of the Alameda County Sheriff's Department further explained the pitfalls of "talking to strangers" — all part of the safety program that is presented annually to children of the Murray School District by the Dublin Junior Women's Club.

Representing the Juniors at this presentation which also includes slides, was Mrs. Gayle Malfatti.

At the question-and-answer period the children were more curious to know if the plain-clothes detective had a badge, carried a gun or hand-cuffs. They also were anxious to relate the many warnings their own mothers had given them about talking to strangers.

The children were thrilled to see Detective Splan's specially-equipped brown Ford sedan at close hand. He worked the siren for them and patiently showed them how the radio worked.

The Dublin Juniors will present a puppet show on nutrition entitled "And Four to Grow," as part of the Nutrition Fair at San Ramon's Family Health Care Center tomorrow.

Parents with pre-school children are invited to the fair at 10 a.m. The children will be given a nutritional snack following the play.

Mister Milk, Elsie Egg, Charlie Carrot, Alice Apple and Chester Cheese are cast in play for pre-schoolers about nutrition to be presented Wednesday by the Dublin Junior Women's Club. Juniors Millie Niven and Joy Milliken will participate in the Nutrition Fair at the San Ramon Family Health Care Center.

Maria Hopkins' labor of love

She helps foreign-speaking students

LIVERMORE — Maria Hopkins teaches English to immigrants four mornings a week, and schedules more students for afternoons or evenings.

She's been doing it since 1960, and has never earned a penny at her teaching. "But," she says by way of explanation, "I just love doing it!"

Working in the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Hopkins uses the Laubach method for the foreign-speaking students. The simple method may also be used for English-speaking, but illiterate, students.

She learned the method in 1960 from Dr. Laubach himself, a world-renowned figure who at the time was promoting his method in Southern California.

Basic to the Laubach method, Mrs. Hopkins learned, is that the tutor need not be a qualified teacher and need not speak the student's native language. A series of textbooks is so closely structured that going from one page to the next and reading the instructions in the manual is all the tutor needs to do.

Lesson One in Laubach is the alphabet. But it's an alphabet with a difference: Each letter is super-imposed on a picture suggesting the letter's shape. For instance, the small letter "b" is shown super-imposed on the figure of a bird, its round head the circular part of the "b", its upturned tail forming the stem of the letter.

It's easy to recall the name and sound of each letter when you have a mental picture to go with it. "Instant success," Laubach followers claim, for teacher and student.

The other Laubach principle is, "Each one, teach one"

—one pupil per tutor for individual attention. Since tutors don't need to be certified teachers, anyone interested in helping a non-reader can be trained as a tutor.

Mrs. Hopkins says the original Laubach method she learned 15 years ago has been supplemented with materials she has gathered. Her program's needs are taken care of by funds raised once a year at a bazaar in the First Baptist Church.

She's starting a training class now for tutors. Anyone interested may contact her for details at 443-0191.

Pleasanton's historic past theme of school poster design contest

PLEASANTON — A poster design contest open to high school, junior high and grade school in the Pleasanton Elementary School District and schools within the city limits, is being sponsored by the Pleasanton Bicentennial Festival Committee and culminates Nov. 7.

First-place winners in three categories (high school, junior high and grade school) that best represent Pleasanton's historic past will have their winning posters reproduced and copies distributed to local banks and merchants. The posters will then be sold to those who wish to purchase keepsakes as a Bicentennial fund raiser.

First, second and third place winners in each age category will receive all-city cash awards of $50, $25 and $15. Special in-school cash awards will be presented to winners, along with certificates and ribbons.

Judges for the "Spirit of '76" poster contest will be from the Pleasanton art groups and the Historical Society.

A special preview showing of the students' poster designs and awards presentations will be held at the District Educational Center, 123 Main St., on Friday, Nov. 14 from 6 to 8 p.m.

The poster exhibit will be on display at the district office from Nov. 14 to Dec. 11.

Military

Thrift, nutrition demo

A program that will demonstrate how to make thrifty and nutritious snacks will be presented Oct. 1 at the Family Medical Center, 9260 Alcosta Blvd., San Ramon. Here, the center's coordinator, Marge Hammer, readies some raw vegetables in preparation for the talk. Catherine Sinnott, a foods demonstrator and home economist with Co-Op Supermarkets for the past eight years, will lead the 10 a.m. session while puppet shows on nutrition will occupy toddlers' attention.

Portola-Murrieta site improvement subject of beautification meet

LIVERMORE — Designs and cost estimates for both the partial and full improvement of the about-to-be-purchased corner site of Portola Avenue and Murrieta Boulevard will be discussed at a beautification committee meeting Wednesday night.

Committee members will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Carnegie Building, Fourth and L streets.

The city council has authorized the leasing of the corner site from the Exxon Company for $1,200 a year in order to improve its appearance. It will be up to the beautification committee to spruce up the site.

Also to be considered by committee members Wednesday night is whether — and where — community kiosks could be placed downtown.

The city has one such kiosk where civic groups post notices and announcements at the corner of Second Street and S. Livermore Avenue.

The kiosk was constructed by the city and cost $2,000. Valley Bank contributed $1,000 for the project.

According to a memo prepared for the beautification committee by City Manager Bill Parness, the intent was to determine the kiosk's acceptance and use.

"If it proved useful, others were to be considered for installation in our central business area," he explained.

Other agenda items scheduled for the meeting are current projects and regular reports (downtown parking and beautification, railroad screening); the possibility of having the city attorney attend future meetings, and voting on and nominating beautification awards.

Pre-school story hours start today at library

Preschool stories for children from three to five years old will be told in four weekly groups at the Pleasanton Library beginning Tuesday.

The sessions will be on Tuesdays at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., Wednesdays at 11 a.m. and Fridays at 10 a.m.

Parents must register their children in advance.

Each session lasts 40 minutes and includes songs in addition to story telling and picture-book reading.

The Tuesday evening session is designed as an alternative time for working parents and those without daytime transportation. That program will last only 30 minutes and include some quiet game activities.

Further information may be obtained from Elizabeth Overmyer at the library.

Council acts on prep band parade

PLEASANTON — As many as 40 high school bands will march down Main Street Nov. 8 in a parade designed to raise money for the Foothill High School Band.

The parade, which will last three hours and begin at 11 a.m., will involve between 3,000 and 4,000 persons, according to its sponsor, the Foothill High School Boosters Club.

The day's events will also include an awards ceremony at the fairgrounds amphitheatre after the parade and a three-hour show at 7 that evening at Amador High School. The parade will form at the high school, go down Main Street to Rose Avenue, to Pleasanton Avenue and enter the fairgrounds through the main gate.

The parade, endorsed by the Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce, is expected to cost the city $900 in overtime pay for police and other staff.

Communication, esteem subjects of seminar to commence Oct. 15

PLEASANTON — "A major problem people have today is knowing what they really want rather than not getting what they want," say Dr. Virginia Tooper.

That and other topics will be explored as a means of understanding and improving communication, self-esteem, personal growth, and self-motivation in Dr. Tooper's new seminar series.

The series is called, "Coffee Cup T.A. Seminars," since basic transactional analysis theories will be applied to group experiences.

Dr. Tooper, a Pleasanton resident for the past two years, is an assistant professor of Education at San Jose State University and a member of the International Transactional Analysis Association. She has taught courses and lectured extensively here in California as well as in many midwestern and eastern states prior to her move to this area.

The Coffee Cup T.A. Seminars will be held in Pleasanton on eight consecutive Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 beginning Oct. 15. Information may be secured by writing to: Coffee Cup T.A. Seminars, Box 565, Pleasanton, Calif. 94566, or by calling 462-3470.

Enrollment is limited.

Evaluation, dismissal of teachers statement adopted by state PTA

The California State PTA adopted a position statement on "Hiring, Evaluation and Dismissal of Teachers" at its Board of Managers meeting held last week in San Mateo.

The statement provides a position for the PTA to take action on legislative bills pertaining to teacher evaluation, identification and dismissal of the incompetent teacher, and adequate funding for in-service training, counseling and evaluation of teachers.

PTA is concerned that good teachers be free of harassment and insecurity, according to spokesman Mrs. William Lindsey of North Hollywood.

However, the small percentage of teachers who refuse to grow and mature effectively within their tenured situations should be excused from further participation in the classrooms of California, the PTA statement contends.

PTA is concerned that the learning situation of the child in the classroom have prime consideration by all school personnel responsible to them.

In March of this year, a task force was appointed to study and submit a report on teacher tenure and revocation of credentials. The committee studied the Stull Act and its effect upon dismissal and the adverse and positive aspects of the Act. Factors such as declining enrollment, collective bargaining, evaluation and alternatives to dismissal were explored.

The task force identified the problem to be not tenure and revocation of credentials, but rather the difficulty under current law of identifying and dismissing incompetent teachers. The panel found that under present law, and because of declining enrollment and other factors, the seniority system built into tenure has prevented the recruitment and retention of many fine and able teachers on school faculties.

The committee concluded that evaluation and counseling are essential to the resolution of the problem of identification of unproductive teachers.

Six points is the bare minimum for a normal response to a one bid in a suit and seven points the normal minimum.

Thus, when your partner opens the bidding, the rule of the ace and the king tells you that with 10 points (7 plus 3 for a king), you should consider inviting game even if partner shows he has opened a minimum-type hand. With 11 points (7 plus 4 for an ace), you should make some game try. While with 14 (7 plus 7 for an ace and a king), you should bid a game.

Ask the Jacobys

A reader from Iowa asks, "You are playing duplicate with a strange partner. He responds three spades to your one-club opening. You pass with a minimum hand with a singleton spade. You miss a club slam and he informs you that his three-spade bid was super-forcing. What system was he playing?"

One of which we have never heard and certainly not one that is normal in the great State of Iowa.

Grant leads Chabot over Vikings

Steve Grant is the man on the hot seat at Chabot College, but his coach, Terry Cagaanan, says there's no sweat.

Grant played all but one series at quarterback for the Gladiators Saturday night as they thumped Diablo Valley College, 34-14, in the Golden Gate Conference opener for both schools.

The Dublin High School graduate replaced starter Don Moore, who was sidelined for the season with a broken collarbone. This Saturday Steve will open up against San Jose City College, the defending conference champion, and the fifth rated junior college team in the country.

It's not the choicest assignment for a freshman signal caller, but Cagaanan isn't fretting.

"He's played well in every game," Cagaanan said yesterday, "and he's such a fine athlete. Steve is the kind of player who thrives on this sort of competitiveness."

"This doesn't change our philosophy at all," Cagaanan said. "We started the season with the idea we wanted balance in our offense. And we've had it with Steve and Donny."

Grant completed seven of 17 passes against the Vikings in his longest playing stint of the young season. He passed for 153 yards, and ran for 23 more on 11 carries. In all three Chabot victories this year, Grant has been a strong runner. That won't change, Cagaanan said, even though Steve might be more vulnerable to injury carrying the ball.

"We can't go in with the thought of anybody getting hurt," the coach said. "The only thing that matters is, can he execute in this situation."

Behind Grant, Chabot had one other quarterback, freshman Chuck Stephenson of Marina. Ironically, Grant and Stephenson opposed each other last autumn when their schools met in a post-season prep contest.

If there is concern over the Chabot quarterbacking, Cagaanan isn't showing it. On the contrary, he is more worried about his fallen veteran, Moore.

"The sad part is that a guy who is so dedicated, and who worked so hard, suddenly can't play. If we're concerned about anything, that's it. Nobody was ever more dedicated than Donny, and that's the kind of player we're concerned about."

Moore, a sophomore from Tennyson High School, was tackled on a rollout play during Chabot's first offensive series at Diablo Valley.

He was rushed to the hospital to have the broken collarbone set, and returned to the field before the game ended. Moore will recover fully, and will be able to play next season, Cagaanan said. His Chabot eligibility will terminate, however.

The Gladiators terminated Diablo in the first quarter, scoring 19 points without the aid of their offense. Defensive back Danny Guaraglia intercepted a Gary Graumann pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown. Then Al Munday ran back a punt 48 yards for another score.

Curtis Bledsoe, who led Chabot rushers with 45 yards, scored later on bursts of one and two yards. Joe Roman sprinted 67 yards for the last six points.

The Gladiators held Graumann to 12 completions in 25 attempts and 154 yards. Dave Shaw, Chabot's Defensive Player of the Week, sacked the DVC quarterback three times, and totalled 15 tackles.

Wide receiver Tom Ferguson was the outstanding offensive player for his five receptions.

Harold Pearson won the special team award, and Darryl Ashley, the inspirational award.

Realty keeps streak

American Realty extended its record to 3-0 in Livermore Flag Football Saturday with a 13-0 whitewash of the Lawrence Laboratory's Grey team.

Ed Heinrich was the offensive star for American, throwing for two touchdowns. Heinrich opened the scoring in the first quarter when he connected with Barry Maynard on a 10-yard touchdown pass. In the third period he hit Robert Brown on a 20-yarder, then ran in the extra point himself.

The Rad Lab's Green team defeated Allied Brokers, 14-6, for its first win of the season. Fred Johnson quarterbacked Green to victory with a pair of scoring passes. The first was a 25-yard bomb to Bill Wooten. Johnson hit Dennis Higgins for the two-point conversion. Johnson and Wooten connected again on an 18-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter.

Cheese Factory jumped ahead by two touchdowns in the first half against Sealrite Roofing, and held on for a 14-0 victory, its third straight.

Chuck Kolb fired a 20-yard pass to Cal Corker for the first score, then hit Vince Cunha for the two-point conversion.

In the second quarter, Pat Pohl threw 50-yards to Mike Pummer for the final touchdown. It was Sealrite's third straight loss.

Royal Volvo scored in the final quarter to defeat Straw Hat Pizza, 14-6, and remain unbeaten after two games.

Bob Wood passed to Ed Miller for an eight-yard score and the victory. Wood accounted for the first score of the game when he hit Dave Knight on a four-yard touchdown pass.

In the second quarter Straw Hat scored when Mark Hartman passed 20 yards to Gene Cordoza.

fumbles.

Dennis Coffeen and Stu Billette both picked up fumbles for the losers. Tim Ballard ran well. Ken Major, Matt Dulick and George Agard all played well defensively.

The Dublin Squires were bopped by Vacaville, 20-0. Scott Lyons scored all three touchdowns for the Bulldogs. Pat Cerruti, Chris Damoules, Greg Matheny and Jay Inglee played well offensively.

On defense, Chris Elbert, Troy Van Fleet, Chris Lusvardi, John Bareford and Randy McLeod were stand-outs.

Carney has four TDs as Dons win, 34-20

Football season may just be getting underway at Amador Valley High School. Following two weeks of injuries and mistakes by rookies, the Dons turned things around for their first victory last Saturday night, 34-20, at Central Valley in Redding.

With all the pieces falling back into place, they just might erase the memory of two lopsided defeats at the start of the year.

Paced by running back Ken Carney's four touchdowns and 125 rushing yards, the Amador offense rolled to its most impressive total of the season. And the defense played well, according to coach Fred Wood.

More important right now, however, is the fact that the Dons are getting healthy again. Quarterback John Sevo returned for a few series Saturday night, and Eric Larsen and Matt Kendall are ready to go again after sitting out games with injuries.

Mike Goodison, the All-EBAL running back, is over his bout with mononucleosis, and is expected to play in the league opener at San Ramon, Oct. 17.

Adding to all this good fortune, Amador may have discovered a new offensive hero in the aftermath of Saturday's victory. He is 6-3, 172 junior Dave Sebahar, up until now, a reserve center.

Because of injuries to Bob Koopman and Otto Ribary, Sebahar was rushed into the game at tackle Saturday and played most of the way. Coincidentally, Amador's line enjoyed its finest blocking night of the season.

"Their coach said after the game that the spindly-legged kid just blew his team out in the second half," Wood smiled yesterday. "And that's just the way he looks. He's a skinny kid, but he played well."

So well, in fact, that Sebahar may start Friday in Amador's home game with Lynbrook of Sunnyvale.

Randy Tallarico will be the quarterback again, after starting his second straight game at Central Valley. Tallarico replaced Sevo when the junior was injured in the season opener. Though John played briefly last Saturday, he'll have to earn the starting spot again, according to Wood. "Once Sevo makes his mind up that he wants the job, he'll have to fight for it."

With Tallarico playing most of the game, Amador completed three of 10 passes against Central Valley. Both Don quarterbacks were recovering from jammed thumbs. "Randy did a pretty good job," Wood praised. "He's been inconsistent with his passing, over-throwing people, but we can work on that."

Carney was the key to Amador's victory, rushing eight and 68 yards for two touchdowns, catching a 19-yard pass for another, and capping the night with an 82-yard kickoff return for a score.

"They underestimated his speed, I think," said Wood. "They were taking the wrong angles of pursuit against him. A couple of times he made nice cutbacks against the grain."

Otherwise, it was a worthwhile weekend in the Northland.

"It did the kids a lot of good. It did us all a lot of good," Wood said. "We go out to win every game, of course, but in the pre-season we play for fundamentals, we don't do a lot of things. We've had so many injuries, and so much inexperience that we've been talking about the improvement the kids were making, instead of the score."

Now they can mention both.

Chabot College seeks its second consecutive Golden Gate Conference soccer victory this afternoon in a 3:15 game at San Jose City College.

The defending champion Gladiators opened the conference schedule last Friday with a 2-0 win over DeAnza. Goals by John Glasky and Gil Zuniga were the difference.

Steve Hector recorded his second shutout of the year in the Chabot net.

Dublin blasts Wranglers

The Dublin Lancers rolled up their biggest offensive output of the Pop Warner season Saturday, and crushed the Concord Wranglers, 41-0.

Dublin gained 490 yards overall, and 390 on the ground. Mark Sanchez rushed for 191 yards, and Jack Trudeau, 142.

Defensively, Steve Boyle pounced on two fumbles for the Lancers, and Trudeau, one. Mark Winegarner, Gil Magallanes and Sanchez all intercepted passes. Greg McBride, and Bob Peterson also played well.

Sanchez opened the scoring in the first period with a 42-yard touchdown run.

In the second period, Pat Murphy scored on a 46-yard reverse, and Sanchez ran an interception back 40-yards for another touchdown and a 19-0 halftime lead.

Sanchez' 55-yard burst in the third period upped the margin. Jack Trudeau scored on a three-yard dive, then in the fourth quarter, Trudeau passed to Jim Grant for the final touchdown.

In other action, Concord defeated the Dublin Knights, 6-0. The Knights out-gained the Pioneers, 108-81, but were stymied by penalties and

Tri-Valley rallies for 9-4 victory

Tri-Valley Heating erupted for seven runs in the fifth inning to clobber Ham Printing, 9-4, in a Livermore Slow Pitch Softball playoff.

Cliff Ferrera was the winning pitcher for Tri-Valley, limiting Ham to 11 hits.

Ferrera's single played a role in the seven-run uprising in the top of the fifth. Harry Engstrom and John Hilton both stroked two-run singles for the winners. Mike Manaua fetched a run with his single.

The winners scored a run in the first inning on Tony Flores' hit, and another in the second on a Terry Crane double.

Ham's Chris Wooden collected three hits, and Gib Souza drove in two runs.

In other playoff action, Paul Marsh Shell belted Buran Construction, 17-6.

Rod Boyd and Gene Marsh each lashed out four hits for the winners. Boyd crashed a two-run homer in the first inning.

Crisp storm?

You've known them as "Storm," a local rock band that made the big time and are now headquartered in Berkeley. But now they're "B.F. Crisp," a name that "fits well with the creative energetic hard rocking sound" according to promoters. The name change was made so the group could trademark original material. "Crisp" drew 1,000 teens at their last local appearance and will be playing again at a dance Friday in the Livermore Area Recreation and Park District's Rec Center, Eighth and H Streets. The dance will be 8:30-11:30 p.m., admission $1.50 at the door, high school ID's required. (Photo courtesy Athens Development Corp.)

Adult swim passes allowing 15 swims may be purchased at the main recreation office, 200 Bernal Ave. during regular office hours.

There's no changing the mind once in momentum as Sue McAllister instructor at the Pleasanton Aquatic Center found out, when taking this jump into the new fall-winter swim program.

Harris tape says Patty manipulated

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Emily Harris, in a tape-recorded statement from her jail cell Monday, described Patricia Hearst as "a truly beautiful woman who is being manipulated" by her parents into saying she was brainwashed.

Mrs. Harris said she and her husband William are being turned into "sacrifices" by the Hearst family.

"Since our capture, the Hearst empire has put into motion all the power and influence that blood money can buy," said Mrs. Harris, a Symbionese Liberation Army member arrested Sept. 18, the same day as Patty. "The two of us are the sacrifices this time."

Miss Hearst said in an affidavit seeking release on bail that she was brainwashed into joining the SLA after the terrorist group kidnapped her Feb. 4, 1974.

Mrs. Harris' tape recording was released by her attorney, Leonard Weinglass.

In it, Mrs. Harris denied that the SLA ever brainwashed Miss Hearst. "Who is brainwashing whom?" she asked.

Council considers initiative

LIVERMORE — The city council will consider endorsing a resolution that urges citizens to fully inform themselves on the nuclear power safeguards initiative that will appear on the June 1976 California primary elections ballot.

The resolution, submitted by Barbara Hartley, neither endorses or disputes nuclear energy but rather emphasizes the need for citizens to learn about and decide on the matter.

"Nuclear power has been called on one hand safe, cheap and clean," the resolution notes, "and on the other hand it has been called dangerous, expensive, and having a long-lived radioactive waste legacy."

The document urges citizens to attend or study the upcoming hearings on the Nuclear Safeguards Initiative by the State Assembly Committee on Energy and Diminishing Materials beginning Oct. 14 in Sacramento.

It also encourages the media to publicize the hearings and asks the city clerk to have a copy of the record of the hearings available for citizen scrutiny.

Committee hearings will take place in room 2126 of the State Capitol with Charles Warren presiding.

On Oct. 14 and 15 the committee will consider California's Nuclear Future; Oct. 21, 22, 28 and 29, Technical Concerns in Nuclear Reactor Safety; Nov. 4, 5 and 6, Nuclear Waste Disposal and Transportation; Nov. 18 and 19, Power Plant Security and Special Nuclear Materials Safeguards; Nov. 20, Nuclear Insurance; Dec. 2 and 3, Implications of the Nuclear Safeguards Initiative, and Dec. 9 and 10, general hearings.

It's time you and your gas furnace started doing things for each other.

Winter's coming. As it always does. And now is the time to check your gas furnace, so you can keep the home fires burning more efficiently.

For the most part, the things you should do are simple.

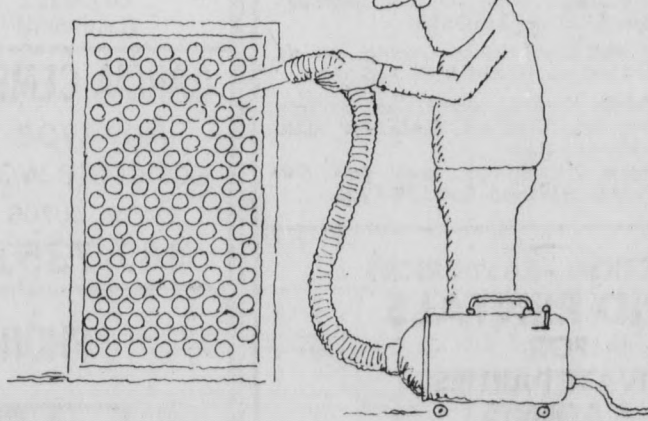

Make sure that the main burner flame is burning blue, not yellow. Otherwise, it may be using more gas, and producing less heat.

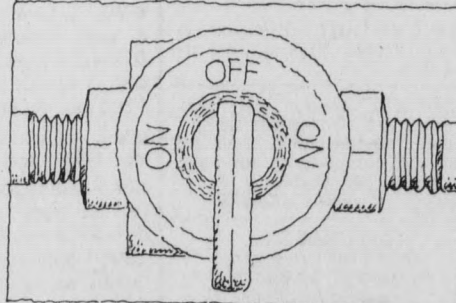

If you have a wall furnace, see that the area around the air openings and controls are free of lint and dust; if you see accumulations of what appear to be soot, you need the help of an expert.

If you have a central furnace, clean or replace the air filter now, and at least once more during the heating season. A clogged filter wastes energy and increases heating costs.

If the pilot is out, turn the thermostat to the lowest possible setting before relighting, make sure the main burner valve and the pilot valve are turned off and allow a few minutes for the gas to clear. Then check the manufacturer's lightup instructions which appear on most furnaces. Once the pilot is ignited, reset the thermostat to 68° or lower. If you're uneasy about it, call PG&E for assistance.

If your furnace needs parts or repairs, call a qualified furnace repair service. If you smell gas, call us. Never look for a gas leak with a lighted match or other flame.

For more information, ask for our booklets, "At Your Service" and "Gas and Electric Safety in Your Home," at your local PG&E office.

With just a little loving care, you and your furnace will be ready for a long, warm winter.

Autumn harvest

The 1975 grape harvest will be a big one, but not quite up to the record established in 1973. Estimates for California are that 3.8 million tons will be harvested, including 50,000 acres of premium wine grapes bearing for the first time. Much of this year's crop is of top quality, a fact emphasized by Margot Law, "National Wine Queen" for this year's harvest. California last year had over 71 percent of the nation's wine market.

Flea market scheduled

The Loma Alta Playground Action Committee will hold a flea market Saturday, Oct. 18, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. behind Fairlands School, 4151 W. Los Positas Blvd.

The flea market is designed to raise money to build a public play area for children in Pleasant Meadows.

Persons interested in reserving space at the market should contact Jacie Oliverius, 462-2643, or Sue Twomey, 846-9280, before Oct. 11.

Sewing is creative outlet

LIVERMORE — Now that the kids are back in school again, many women are finding themselves looking for a creative outlet, a new interest or a hobby that saves them some money.

High on the list of possibilities is home sewing.

The Livermore Adult School announces there are still some openings in all levels of the comprehensive five-level sewing program. These classes are planned to teach the home sewer all the skills from beginner to advanced dressmaking and tailoring.

One level, Dressmaking III (Fitting and Drafting Skills) is designed to help conquer the many fitting problems that hamper the seamstress.

The popular Dressmaking I classes are offered in the morning and evening each Wednesday, where students learn the basic skills necessary in sewing.

A limited number of openings remain in Dressmaking II classes. This level of instruction builds on basic skills learned previously and emphasizes knit construction with a comparison of woven and knit techniques, including lingerie, swim suits and men's slacks. Dyeing and textile information and more advanced sewing techniques will also be discussed.

Classes are offered morning and evening each Thursday.

Dressmaking II-A on Tuesday mornings offers instruction in advanced techniques in construction of woven and knit garments along with other skills which lead to professionally made garments.

In Dressmaking III, students will gain knowledge of fitting techniques by use of basic patterns, adjusting commercial patterns as well as learning some drafting skills. Students will learn to use a fitting tool called a plastic, and learn to make most of the alterations before cutting the fabric.

Advanced Dressmaking and Tailoring Skills are perfected in Dressmaking IV. In addition, some work will be done on specialty fabrics such as leather. Interesting field trips are planned.

Although classes are already underway, anyone interested in signing up may do so at the Livermore Adult School office, 3044 East Ave. Registration fee is $4 for one or more classes.

Additional information on any adult-school class is available from the office, 447-6671.
